

Pier Manager Report July 22, 2015

July 13, While calling numbers Solaya missed her number and when Rons number was called he put Key up and she moved it to put her key there. there was no altercation but Ron wanted me to note it in minutes. I did see it.

July 15, Solaya was told not to park her car by Waterfront Playhouse anymore.

Mustafa was told that he has to pay daily

July 17, Kevin was warned to do one act in Plaza or he would be suspended for one night, which I had planned on doing, but we talked he opologized and was left with a warning.

July 18, had to stop fight in the Plaza and walked the person off the premises that I saw hitting other person.

Participants have all been told to come to kiosk, scan cards, pay fee, and be timely. There are just a couple of people that are coming in late for lottery. I explain to them that it doesn't help them or me if they come in late.

July 21, Jeff Gordon received a letter from PC regarding what he juried in for and what he is putting on his stand, which is not wiring his large shark teeth. He said that he will comply.
