

Waiver for Participants under 18

The sunset celebration is granting the privilege of participating in our event as a performers and has the authority to revoke that privilege at any reason at any time.

Granting permission to participate is the only action that sunset celebration is taking. We are not taking responsibility for the safety of this participant. The sunset celebration recommends the parent or guardian of young children to remain with the child while at sunset celebration. The safety of under age children remains the responsibility of their parent or guardian and not the sunset celebration.

Performing in a public place exposes performers to potential misbehavior of the public such as vulgarity and insults and worse. By signing below you are agreeing that no act of the public shall be blamed on the sunset celebration.
